

7 Fenton Place, Myaree

Divide and Conquer

You have options galore when it comes to this magnificent buy. The property includes a character circa 1960's brick and tile home, with all the features of the era such as Jarrah flooring and would be an easy rental for an astute investor.

Or as an owner occupier you have a great foundation to expand on by extending and taking advantage of the generous piece of 973sqm land.

Lastly, and your best option, is you can subdivide the property giving you a street front block as well as retain the existing house with its own street frontage.

Dont delay as this property will go fast.
